

8/2/20	On colonoscopy: More mistakes have been made combining a doctor with minimal English language skills and anesthesia than anything in the history of mankind – except maybe bourbon and a pistol. You then impart critical personal information to this person who is going to take you as near to death as you have yet come. Mine asked if I had any mental illness in the family; I said I have an uncle who worked in the Carter administration. Everyone asks you about 10 times if you are allergic to anything. My answer remained consistent: Pilates and weak-willed men. Later, once you can stand up, you are released to go home. It’s the same criterion my bartender uses. You are told you cannot drive that day or (my favorite) “operate heavy machinery.” This fits my lifelong rule: Do Not Operate Heavy Machinery – Ever. I call my assistant into my office to operate my stapler. If Trump would just allow it, they should give “MoviPrep” to captured ISIS terrorists in New York. After taking it, everything comes out. It is like a divorcée at a Houston bar after three vodkas. You can also use the time to ask your gastroenterologist about the health and lifestyle choices you make and their potential damage to your internal organs. Mine opined that I drank a lot, and I didn’t disagree. I told him that I liked bourbon over ice, Jack Daniels on the rocks or, occasionally, Scotch whiskey on ice. He told me that is really awful for me. So I learned an important health fact: ice must be bad for you.
4/12/20	Democrats said Trump should have acted more like Hitler in February to shut down the U.S. economy sooner over the coronavirus. Now, when he wants to reopen the U.S. economy, Dems say it is the states’ right to decide when to re-open and that Trump is acting like Hitler. The intellectual debate on the left seems to be: just how much Hitler is the correct amount?
7/30/20	Apparently the way many show respect for George Floyd is to break a window of a Nike store and steal Air Jordans — not exactly what Dr. King would have done. I can offer some advice to all the “protesters” out there: Be sure not to forget to also steal AAA batteries for the flat-screen remote. It is embarrassing to have to go back to the store.

	Of the rioters, many were imported white liberal college anarchists, antifa. The Feds would not shoot them because they owe the government at least $90k each in student loans, and they wouldn't let the students off the hook that easily.
5/30/20	Folks in Buckhead were unsure if it was still coronavirus season or looting season, not to pass judgement but to make sure they were dressed for the right season.
7/20/20	Thugs have looted about all they can in "honor" of George Floyd. I was in an Atlanta store Tuesday where looters were outnumbered by folks determined to pay for stuff, because Dr. Fauci asked Democrat mayors to limit looters to 6 per store but only if they could not afford to loot from home. The good news is that it seems tear gas cures COVID.
2/2/20	Regarding Comey, there has not been a drama queen like him running the FBI since J. Edgar Hoover hung up his high heels.
4/2/20	Covid: New York's rhetoric has been clear: You are safer under lockdown with us (although it did not turn out so well for Jeffrey Epstein). New York loves controlling its people. Cuomo has done what no wives have ever been able to do: keeping their husbands out of bars, staying home and not watching sports.
5/13/20	They eviscerated Trump for visiting an Arizona face mask plant and not wearing one himself. What do they expect? Would the Kardashians visit their lingerie plant and wear panties? Prescriptions of antidepressants are up 33% in the last month. I am not big on relying on prescription drugs; I don't totally trust the health care industrial complex. My advice if you're stressed, anxious and unhappy? Ask your doctor if a bottle of bourbon might be right for you.
5/3/20	Israeli researchers announced that they feel the cure for the coronavirus rests in studying fecal matter. To do his part and speed up their studies, Trump sent them the last 100 shows of Don Lemon on CNN. And Trump, as the media breathlessly tell us each time they think he has been exposed to the virus, doesn't have it. I'm no scientist, but I think they also need to research if an orange spray tan works as a barrier against COVID-19.

4/2/20	By way of background, “Lil’-Kim” Jong Un, age 36, inherited his evil dictating business from his dad. Before he died in 2011, Kim Jong-il bequeathed the job to his Jong-Un, his youngest son, passing over older brothers Kim Jong Tito and Kim Jong Jermaine. Speculation is that things have not improved for the brothers. If Un dies, the business goes to his sister, Kim Jong LaToya. Kim Jong Un was a relative newcomer to evil dictating. He has a Super Cuts-gone-wrong haircut from the k.d. lang Collection. He is fat; maybe that is what endears him to the twenty-five million starving North Koreans and has him near death. He wears pantsuits from the Hillary Clinton Collection to disguise his girth. Murderous and Machiavellian, this family has thwarted challengers to their power for decades. They are all ruthless and have killed more uncles than cigarettes. Lil’ Kim does have some hydrogen and nuclear bomb technology. North Korean scientists accidentally discovered hydrogen bomb technology when they were trying to develop a way for Kim Jong Un to take a bubble bath while still wearing his military medals. We know North Korea is lying about getting rid of its nukes. North Korea and Iran are getting rid of their nukes in the same way Pelosi and the Democrats are helping Trump with the COVID-19 crisis. And there are other concerns for the world; Pentagon officials fear that North Korea might be just four years away from developing a boy band.
4/16/20	Personal records, which the University of Delaware has hidden, might reside among Joe Biden’s papers stored in the building named after him. I can point out which building; it’s the one where the elevator no longer goes all the way to the top.
5/2/20	Biden has self-righteously announced he will pick a woman to be his running mate, and the Democrat Party, collectively worried, is giving him a lot of help. Their fear is that Biden will try to hand pick her.

2/27/20	Joe Biden's faltering campaign was revitalized by his big win in South Carolina. Re-invigorated, the excitable Joe Biden took to the podium in South Carolina to show his appreciation by thanking South Dakotans for their votes. But Biden did so well in Texas that he has already proposed his son, Hunter, for a Texas Gas Company board seat. Then there is Bloomberg, who was savaged by Pocahontas in the debates. He is not used to mouthy women whom he cannot pay off. He has spent $500 million on self-aggrandizing ads and not doing interviews. Bloomberg, who is so rich he has been self-sheltered from any criticism, found out the hard way that Democrat politics are brutal — and you don't bring a checkbook to a gunfight. So where are we with the Dems? You had your midget Bloomberg, the faux- Indian Warren, your angry-old-man Sanders, and your gay sailor Mayor Pete. Biden is the only one who could not fit in a top-10 category on your favorite porn site.
2/29/20	Now with Mayor Pete out, the "party of diversity" essentially has only white, old, male candidates left. Biden is the youngest man in the race. Sanders is 78 and whippersnapper Biden is 77. All have passed the CDC's estimate of male life expectancy of 76.2 years. Elizabeth Warren is 71 and her husband is younger than she but is likely to die before her, because he wants to. The Democrat Party (you know, the one of "diversity") has no black candidates left. The field is now so white it looks like a Jimmy Buffett concert.
